

Posted May 18, 2003

3 from county advance in state entrepreneur's competition

Leaders of Locate Staffing, Wisconsin Business Bank in the running

Sheboygan Press staff

Janelle E. Koren, president and founder of Locate Staffing Inc. and Russell J. Schuller and Kevin Tenpas, chairman and president of Wisconsin Business Bank, respectively, have been selected Wisconsin business finalists in the 2003 Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards.

Award recipients will be announced June 26 at a banquet at the Midwest Airlines Center in Milwaukee. Those winners will become eligible for national Entrepreneur Of The Year honors, won by Herbert Kohler Jr. last year.

The awards program recognizes entrepreneurs who have demonstrated excellence and extraordinary success in financial performance, innovation and personal commitment to their businesses and communities.

Entrepreneur Of The Year is produced by Ernst & Young. Wisconsin co-sponsors are Godfrey & Kahn, LaSalle Bank and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

The program was started in Milwaukee in 1986 and has expanded to six continents.